

presents:

Sir Terry Pratchett's

WYRD SISTERS

photo by Stephen Dean

Original adaptation by Stephen Briggs
Reworked for Unseen Theatre Company by Pamela Munt
Directed by Pamela Munt and David Dyte

Blasted heaths; three old crones (well two old crones and a young one in training); bloody murder with spots that refuse to be erased; usurping Kings; vanishing heirs to thrones; political manoeuvrings; all-knowing Fools; plays within plays; truth within lies etc. etc.

No – its not Shakespeare – it's the Discworld, but given that this world holds a distorted mirror to our own, the question is:-"Is the Bard turning in his grave or giggling with delight"

COME AND FIND OUT FOR YOURSELF!

WHEN:

Preview and Free Tix Night
(for pensioners & unemployed)
Friday June 10 2011
Opening Night Saturday June 11
Season continues Wed to Sat until June 25
All shows at 8pm

WHERE:

Bakehouse Theatre
255 Angas Street Adelaide

TIX:

Adults $18, Conc $15
Groups (10+) $14
Fringe Benefits $14
Preview Night (June 10) all tix $14

BOOKINGS:

www.bakehousetheatre.com (no booking fee)
or 82270505
($2 per ticket booking fee applies)

“There is no justice, there is just us”

For more information visit:

www.unseen.com.au

or contact: pamela@unseen.com.au